#6

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE MONDAY AUG. 8, 1960

(9)

In Uniform

Island Marine Is Serving With Presidential Guard

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE
MONDAY 8-8-60

By The Mail Clerk

A Castleton Corners U.S. Marine has completed his latest assignment with the Presidential Guard protecting President Eisenhower during the chief executive's vacation at Newport, R.I.

He is Jack Cataneo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cataneo of 37 Franklin Pl.

Jack Cataneo

The Island leatherneck now will report to Washington, D. C., for further duty with the Presidential Guard.

Cataneo, a former Port Richmond High School student, entered the service in December, 1958. He received his initial training at Parris Island, S.C.

The Islander recently received a promotion to lance corporal.

HAND SELECTED TO PRESIDENTIAL HONOR GUARD:

Marine Barracks
8th & I
Washington, D.C.

Guarded
Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower
&
Pres. John F. Kennedy.
1959 - to Dec 31, 1961